Scripture

Our scripture reading this evening is from the Gospel according to John. Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Church.

So he came to a Samaritan city called Sychar, near the plot of ground that Jacob had given to his son Joseph. Jacob's well was there, and Jesus, tired out by his journey, was sitting by the well. It was about noon.

A Samaritan woman came to draw water, and Jesus said to her, 'Give me a drink'. (His disciples had gone to the city to buy food.) The Samaritan woman said to him, 'How is it that you, a Jew, ask a drink of me, a woman of Samaria?' (Jews do not share things in common with Samaritans.) Jesus answered her, 'If you knew the gift of God, and who it is that is saying to you, "Give me a drink", you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, you have no bucket, and the well is deep. Where do you get that living water? Are you greater than our ancestor Jacob, who gave us the well, and with his sons and his flocks drank from it?' Jesus said to her, 'Everyone who drinks of this water will be thirsty again, but those who drink of the water that I will give them will never be thirsty. The water that I will give will become in them a spring of water gushing up to eternal life.' The woman said to him, 'Sir, give me this water, so that I may never be thirsty or have to keep coming here to draw water.'

Jesus said to her, 'Go, call your husband, and come back.' The woman answered him, 'I have no husband.' Jesus said to her, 'You are right in saying, "I have no husband"; for you have had five husbands, and the one you have now is not your husband. What you have said is true!' The woman said to him, 'Sir, I see that you are a prophet. Our ancestors worshipped on this mountain, but you say that the place where people must worship is in Jerusalem.' Jesus said to her, 'Woman, believe me, the hour is coming when you will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. You worship what you do not know; we worship what we know, for salvation is from the Jews. But the hour is coming, and is now here, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such as these to worship him. God is spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth.' The woman said to him, 'I know that Messiah is coming' (who is called Christ). 'When he comes, he will proclaim all things to us.' Jesus said to her, 'I am he, the one who is speaking to you.'

Just then his disciples came. They were astonished that he was speaking with a woman, but no one said, 'What do you want?' or, 'Why are you speaking with her?' Then the woman left her water-jar and went back to the city. She said to the people, 'Come and see a man who told me everything I have ever done! He cannot be the Messiah, can he?' They left the city and were on their way to him.

Meanwhile the disciples were urging him, 'Rabbi, eat something.' But he said to them, 'I have food to eat that you do not know about.' So the disciples said to one another, 'Surely no one has brought him something to eat?' Jesus said to them, 'My food is to do the will of him who sent me and to complete his work. Do you not say, "Four months more, then comes the harvest"? But I tell you, look around you, and see how the fields are ripe for harvesting. The reaper is already receiving wages and is gathering fruit for eternal life, so that sower and reaper may rejoice together. For here the saying holds true, "One sows and another reaps." I sent you to reap that for which you did not labour. Others have laboured, and you have entered into their labour.'

Many Samaritans from that city believed in him because of the woman's testimony, 'He told me everything I have ever done.'

After scripture read

One: This is God's story. This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God.

God we often fall short of the mark. Then again, you never said this journey was an easy one. We carry such heavy baggage with us. We ask that you help us leave behind the things that we don't need. We also ask that you help us carry the things we can't give up yet. We know that someday you'll free us of all the things that hold us back or drag us down. Until then, we rest assured that you travel with us throughout the story of our lives. Thanks be to God! Amen.

Scripture

Gen 16:1-16

Now Sarai, Abram's wife, bore him no children. She had an Egyptian slave-girl whose name was Hagar, and Sarai said to Abram, 'You see that the Lord has prevented me from bearing children; go in to my slave-girl; it may be that I shall obtain children by her.' And Abram listened to the voice of Sarai. So, after Abram had lived for ten years in the land of Canaan, Sarai, Abram's wife, took Hagar the Egyptian, her slave-girl, and gave her to her husband Abram as a wife. He went in to Hagar, and she conceived; and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked with contempt on her mistress. Then Sarai said to Abram, 'May the wrong done to me be on you! I gave my slave-girl to your embrace, and when she saw that she had conceived, she looked on me with contempt. May the Lord judge between you and me!' But Abram said to Sarai, 'Your slave-girl is in your power; do to her as you please.' Then Sarai dealt harshly with her, and she ran away from her.

The angel of the Lord found her by a spring of water in the wilderness, the spring on the way to Shur. And he said, 'Hagar, slave-girl of Sarai, where have you come from and where are you going?' She said, 'I am running away from my mistress Sarai.' The angel of the Lord said to her, 'Return to your mistress, and submit to her.' The angel of the Lord also said to her, 'I will so greatly multiply your offspring that they cannot be counted for multitude.' And the angel of the Lord said to her,

'Now you have conceived and shall bear a son;
you shall call him Ishmael,
for the Lord has given heed to your affliction.

He shall be a wild ass of a man,
with his hand against everyone,
and everyone's hand against him;
and he shall live at odds with all his kin.'

So she named the Lord who spoke to her, 'You are El-roi'; for she said, 'Have I really seen God and remained alive after seeing him?' Therefore the well was called Beer-lahai-roi; it lies between Kadesh and Bered.

Hagar bore Abram a son; and Abram named his son, whom Hagar bore, Ishmael. Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Gen 21: 1-21

The LORD dealt with Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah as he had promised. Sarah conceived and bore Abraham a son in his old age, at the time of which God had spoken to him. Abraham gave the name Isaac to his son whom Sarah bore him. And Abraham circumcised his son Isaac when he was eight days old, as God had commanded him. Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him. Now Sarah said, 'God has brought laughter for me; everyone who hears will laugh with me.' And she said, 'Who would ever have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.'

The child grew, and was weaned; and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. So she said to Abraham, 'Cast out this slave woman with her son; for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.' The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. But God said to Abraham, 'Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named after you. As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.' So Abraham rose early in the morning, and took bread and a skin of water, and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed, and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot; for she said, 'Do not let me look on the death of the child.' And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept. And God heard the voice of the boy; and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven, and said to her, 'What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid; for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.' Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink.

God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness, and became an expert with the bow. He lived in the wilderness of Paran; and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

Affirmation of Faith

In a broken and fearful world
the Spirit gives us courage to pray without ceasing, to witness among all peoples to Christ as Lord and Savior,
to unmask idolatries in Church and culture,
to hear the voices of peoples long silenced,
and to work with others for justice, freedom, and peace.
In gratitude to God, empowered by the Spirit,
we strive to serve Christ in our daily tasks and to live holy and joyful lives, even as we watch for God's new heaven and new earth, praying, “Come, Lord Jesus!”

With believers in every time and place, we rejoice that nothing in life or in death can separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Prayers of the People

All the pieces

Broken and scattered

In mercy gathered

Mended and whole

Empty handed

But not forsaken

O Lord you lift up the broken and grant healing to them

You know those who suffer,

Those who are sick,

And those who the ultimate healing is joining you in heaven.

You are in the story

You are our rock,

Our help in ages past

Give the silent, a voice,

Give the still, action

The blind, sight

The lost, faith

We pray for those who are punished for worshiping you

We pray for your grace to guide

Those ravaged by sin or natural disaster

We pray for our story

The pages where it hurts to look

And our new story in you

May love and forgiveness illustrate

The pages of our lives and may the words of your lives be written into your story.

We pray in the name of the greatest story teller,

Jesus the Christ who taught us to pray saying...

Our Father who art in Heaven

Hallowed by thy name

Thy kingdom come

Thy will be done

On earth as it is in heaven

Give us this day our daily bread

And forgive us our debts

As we forgive our debtors.

Lead us not into temptation

But deliver us from evil

For thine is the power and the glory forever

Amen

Scripture

Jeremiah 32:1-3a, 6-15

The word that came to Jeremiah from the LORD in the tenth year of King Zedekiah of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar. At that time the army of the king of Babylon was besieging Jerusalem, and the prophet Jeremiah was confined in the court of the guard that was in the palace of the king of Judah, where King Zedekiah of Judah had confined him. Jeremiah said, The word of the LORD came to me: Hanamel son of your uncle Shallum is going to come to you and say, 'Buy my field that is at Anathoth, for the right of redemption by purchase is yours.' Then my cousin Hanamel came to me in the court of the guard, in accordance with the word of the LORD, and said to me, 'Buy my field that is at Anathoth in the land of Benjamin, for the right of possession and redemption is yours; buy it for yourself.' Then I knew that this was the word of the LORD. And I bought the field at Anathoth from my cousin Hanamel, and weighed out the money to him, seventeen shekels of silver. I signed the deed, sealed it, got witnesses, and weighed the money on scales. Then I took the sealed deed of purchase, containing the terms and conditions, and the open copy; and I gave the deed of purchase to Baruch son of Neriah son of Mahseiah, in the presence of my cousin Hanamel, in the presence of the witnesses who signed the deed of purchase, and in the presence of all the Judeans who were sitting in the court of the guard. In their presence I charged Baruch, saying, Thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, both this sealed deed of purchase and this open deed, and put them in an earthenware jar, in order that they may last for a long time. For thus says the LORD of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall again be bought in this land.

Affirmation of Faith

I believe in God the Father Almighty who began the story when the pages were blank.

I believe in Jesus Christ who lived and died for our messy stories in a time of guilt, forgiveness, and love.

I believe in the Holy Ghost who lives out our messy stories with us and continues to show God's love in our lives.

I believe that our story is not finished, that our pages are filled with faith and illustrated with mercy, and that we will continue to live on until Christ comes again.

Amen.

Prayers for Hope

(Each of these lines are going to be read on screens)

We hope for restored relationships and forgiveness.

We hope for healing of racial wounds and divisions.

We hope for messy stories to be made beautiful.

We hope for a better tomorrow.

We hope for people about to move to college, that they may connect with other people who also want to tell God's story.

We hope for a love of peace to be stronger than our reliance on violence.

Communion

Invitation to the Table

Jesus met his disciples—women and men, young and old—and invited them to share his story.

Jesus still meets his disciples—women and men, young and old—and invites us to be a part of the story.

That story gathers us around this table, to celebrate communion.

At this table, we receive the bread of new life.

At this table, we are called together from many stories into one story.

At this table, we are strengthened to go answer Christ's call.

Christ welcomes all and bids us to come and celebrate the feast.

Let us pray.

Great Prayer of Thanksgiving

The Lord be with you.

And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.

We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

Eternal God,

it is right to give our thanks and praise.

We rejoice in your perfect story.

We give you thanks for your presence in the world and in our lives, for the ways in which you are in each of our stories.

Loving God,

Tonight we come to this table looking to be fed.

We remember the stories of miraculous feeding, of manna in the wilderness,

and the abundance of loaves and fishes,

and the miracle of the wine at the wedding in Cana.

We are reminded that all our stories are welcome at this table.

You welcome those who feel that they have answers and those who are still asking questions.

You welcome those who are strong and those who are broken.

You welcome those whom this table has great meaning and those who are still finding meaning for the first time.

Gracious God,

pour out your Holy Spirit upon us and upon these gifts of bread and cup, that the bread we break

and the cup we bless may be the communion of the body and blood of Christ.

By your Spirit make us one with Christ that we may be one with all who share this feast, united in ministry in every place.

As this bread is Christ's body for us, send us out to be the body of Christ in the world.

Guide us as we embody your love and joy through our own stories.

Help us to walk with one another in mercy and peace,

in justice and joy,

each and every day,

that your abundant grace and faith might flow in us wherever we go.

Through Christ, with Christ, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor are yours, almighty God, Author of our stories, now and forever.

We pray all of these things in the name of Jesus who taught us to pray, saying:

*Our Father who art in heaven,
Hallowed be thy name.
Thy Kingdom Come.
Thy will be done,
On earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
Lead us not into temptation,
But deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.”*

Words of Institution

The story tells us that

On the night that Jesus was betrayed, he had supper with his friends in an upper room.

After giving thanks to God, he broke bread and gave it to his friends saying: “This is my body broken for you. Do this in remembrance of me.”

In the same way he took the cup, saying: “This cup is the new covenant sealed in my blood, shed for your for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this in remembrance of me.”

Each time we eat this bread and drink from this cup we together proclaim the saving death of our risen Lord until he comes again.”

These are the gifts of God for the people of God. Let us gather around the table together.

(directions for communion)

Prayer after communion (can do as unison prayer)

Let us pray.

We thank you, O God, that by these ordinary gifts of bread and wine, we are reminded of your extraordinary gifts of grace and steadfast love. Unite our stories as one, encourage us with hope, and inspire us to love, that we may serve as your faithful disciples until we feast at your table in glory. Amen.

Scripture

Mark 16: 1-8

When the sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices, so that they might go and anoint him. And very early on the first day of the week, when the sun had risen, they went to the tomb. They had been saying to one another, 'Who will roll away the stone for us from the entrance to the tomb?' When they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had already been rolled back. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man, dressed in a white robe, sitting on the right side; and they were alarmed. But he said to them, 'Do not be alarmed; you are looking for Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has been raised; he is not here. Look, there is the place they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter that he is going ahead of you to Galilee; there you will see him, just as he told you.' So they went out and fled from the tomb, for terror and amazement had seized them; and they said nothing to anyone, for they were afraid.

Marci: Please be seated.

As we prepare to continue worship around Lake Susan we will be ushered from the auditorium and led to the lake.

LISTEN TO INSTRUCTIONS FROM MARCI

In just one moment, the ushers will come forward. Until that time, please remain seated until they guide you out of your pew, and to the proper door for dismissal. Be sure to stay with your line, so we can circle the lake completely and quickly.

Please continue in worship as Steve leads in SONG as Jerry leaves to Lake

Ushers, will you please come forward.

Sanctuary – LIGHT CANDLES IF THEY HAVENOT ALREADY BEEN DONE!

Andy: This chapter of our story ends here – illumined by candles, reflected love and light that has carried us through this piece of our story together. It is a beautiful ending before the start of our next chapter – a chapter that begins as soon as we turn away from this moment.

Marci: Soon you will go. But first let us pause to be grateful, for the people who have entered our stories and lives because of this week. Let us thank God for their mark in our stories as we whisper their names into the quiet of the night.

[PAUSE FOR WHISPERS! ]

Clay: Think back to the stories that have shaped us – stories from scripture, heartaches, victories, memories etched into our beings that have made us who we are.

Joan: Your story continues from here. As you travel and learn, adventure and grow, know that all we are becoming is a gift from God – our Author, Redeemer, Protector, and Love.

Song – “BEAUTIFUL THINGS” – Chorus only!

YOU MAKE BEAUTIFUL THINGS

YOU MAKE BEAUTIFUL THINGS OUT OF THE DUST

YOU MAKE BEAUTIFUL THINGS

YOU MAKE BEAUTIFUL THINGS OUT OF US

Steve: Now, let’s take a moment to recognize the other stories you have going on outside this place.

Jerry: You have new challenges ahead of you when you return home, or when you embark on a college adventure in a few short weeks.

Anna: So, we want to pray for you now. Graduating seniors and those of you who are at Montreat for the last time as a conferee please raise your candles.

Nick: If your candles are not raised, take a moment to be grateful for this year, and the years to come – and people like these amongst you that will be part of your story. May God Bless you and keep you on your journey.

Drew: If your candles are not raised, please blow them out at this time and move to touch the shoulder of a person with a raised candle around you.

Katelyn: You with your candles raised, please hold them in front of you again. We are so grateful to have you bless this conference this year and in any years before. In small ways and big ways you have imprinted your story in the vast story of God's movement at Montreat.

Katie: Your stories have and will continue to make an impact for those around you.

Rob: So we around you are supporting you now and promise to pray for you as you leave this place.

Mary Helen: Let us pray. [PAUSE] Holy One, breathe into these stories still being created. Empower them with your strength. Enlighten them with your love.

Lindsay: Even as you are inscribing your story on all our hearts, give these conferees pens and paintbrushes, guitars and graphics to write along with you something incredible.

Aaron: Protect them, surround them with saints, enliven their stories with laughter and tears, love and prayers.

Ben: And remind them every step they are never alone. Through the powerful name of Jesus who walked in our shoes and shows us the way. Amen.

Please extinguish your candles at this time, but know the story is not over.

Song – “Story of Our Lives” (slow)

THIS IS THE STORY OF OUR LIFE

STORY OF OUR LIFE SO FAR

TRYING TO FIND OUT WHO WE ARE

[everyone move around mics together. Omayra needs to be in the front! ]

Omayra: As you leave this place, we invite you to share with one another a special kind of peace. In Puerto Rico, a popular saying is “Somos Uno” - much like Ubuntu, I am because you are. We are more whole when we are helping our stories unfold together – knowing we are one working into the kingdom of God. So give your hugs and say your goodbyes with the words “Somos Uno.” We cannot wait to see how your stories unfold. God be with you. Somos Uno, Montreat.

ALL: Somos uno
